

INFORMATION PACKAGED SPECIFIC TO YOUR NEEDS

THE HIN RESOURCE LIBRARY contains a wide range of materials for use by associations, service providers and farmers. Our service offers are fit for purpose. You can choose how you want to generate and distribute resources. This level of customisation allows you to deliver information specific to your needs, commodity or interests.

Resources are organised into videos, condensed reports, newsletters, magazines and training packages. We ensure up-to-date information through continual updates and pride ourselves on the ease of use of our materials. Fully supported with data usage analytics and reporting, HIN.com.au excels in providing users and stakeholders with the information they need, when they need it.
